

Do you know the signs of an overdose?

Get to know the signs of an overdose know how to save a life.

Check for:

- Small pinpoint pupils
- Severe nausea or vomiting
- Difficulty breathing
- Blue colouring to any body part
- The person isn't responding
- Limp limbs

If you notice any of these signs, call 999 immediately and ask for an ambulance.

Carry #naloxone and give it to the person in need, inform emergency service that naloxone has been given.

Every accidental overdose is a preventable death.

#EndOverdose

 Waythrough